Privacy Notice

The purpose of this Notice is to set out the purposes for which your personal data is processed, and how it will be maintained according to the Data Protection Act 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulations which replace them in May 2018.

You have the right to raise any complaints relating to the processing of your data with the Information Commissioner's Office (you can find details at www.ico.org.uk).

- The basis on which your data is collected is by your consent for us to do so. To withdraw such consent this must be placed in writing to the Secretary, who will remove any details requested from the database. If you wish to notify a change of details this must be placed in writing to the Secretary, who will change the requested details on the database.
- Information which you supply on this form is processed and retained by the Penarth and District Wargames Society Secretary. Any member not having renewed their membership by the date of the appointment of the new Committee will have their data removed from any database maintained by the Secretary.
- Your personal data will not be passed on to third parties (i.e. persons outside of the Penarth and District Wargames Society Committee) without your express consent.
- The address and e-mail data you provide is used for the purposes of maintaining an accurate database to enable contact with you by letter or e-mail to communicate the Society's business. If you do not provide e-mail or address details then you will not be contacted via that medium.
- The telephone data you provide may be used to contact you where it is necessary to discuss Society business. If you do not provide telephone details then you will not be contacted by telephone.
- The e-mail addresses of members who sign-up to the Society's e-group will be visible to other e-group users.
